October 2011

I heard thru the grapevine that Lion Mary did a great job running our September meeting in my absence. Thanks Lion Mary! Also I would like to thank her and Lion Linda for hosting a Great 3 G's dinner. The food was good and the entertainment was amazing.

As I look out my window, I see leaves falling and blowing across the yard. It brings the thought that soon we will see snow blowing across the yardBURRRRR and Lion Todd will be putting together our annual Christmas Tree Sales. This Sat., Oct. 22nd it will be a work day at my house for making up new tree stands and straightening out the trailers. I hope to see a good turn-out. The tree stand set-up will be Sat., Nov. 19th and our trees will arrive on Nov. 25th. Sales start Sat., Nov. 26th. Be sure to mark these days on your calendar.

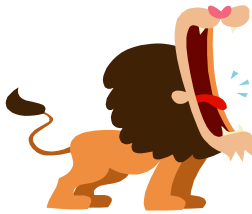

I'd like to thank all those who participated in Candy Days. Hopefully we will have a report from Lion Troy at our meeting. At least it was a decent week-end.

Lion Carroll has the Senior Citizen Luncheon planned for Nov. 8th at the Avalon at 11:00 am and I know she will need a hand helping the seniors and their wheelchairs in. Also, we have a PADS dinner scheduled for Tues., Nov. 29th.

Hope to see all of you at our meeting this Monday at the Township. Bring a guest.

LION PRESIDENT HAROLD

3 G's Dinner

The Gagewood Lions were the host club for the 3 G's Dinner (Gagewood/Grayslake/Gurnee). A big thanks to Lion Mary for organizing and being our gracious master of ceremonies. The event was held at Parkway by the Lake Banquets. Everyone enjoyed the great food and special mind blowing entertainment.
