Do you have an elevator speech?

You are wearing your Lions pin, you step on an elevator and the person next to you points to your pin and says "What is that?"

You have approximately 16 seconds to explain all the good work done by Lions, get the stranger excited to learn more and maybe think about becoming a Lion.

You could say something like this...
"I received this pin when I became a member of the International Association of Lions Clubs, the world's largest service organization. Our club holds two pancake breakfasts a year, participates in Candy Day and supports our community in any way possible. If you are interested in learning more or would like to help out, let me know. Here is my card (or telephone number)."

LCI Vision Statement:
To be the global leader in community and humanitarian service.

The new Lions Club Supply Catalog is out with lots of items with the new logo brand. Take a look at the catalog at the monthly meeting. It is always on the front table.

Lions Code of Ethics

- To Show my faith in the worthiness of my vocation by industrious application to the end that I may merit a reputation for quality of service.
- To Seek success and to demand all fair remuneration or profit as my just due, but to accept no profit or success at the price of my own self-respect lost because of unfair advantage taken or because of Questionable acts on my part.
- To Remember that in building up my business it is not necessary to tear down another's; to be loyal to my clients or customers and true to myself.
- Whenever a doubt arises as to the right or ethics of my position or action towards others, to resolve such doubt against myself.
- To Hold friendship as an end and not a means. To hold that true friendship exists not on account of the service performed by one another, but that true friendship demands nothing but accepts service in the spirit in which it is given.
- Always to bear in mind my obligations as a citizen to my nation, my state, and my community, as to give them my unswerving loyalty in word, act, and deed. To give them freely of my time, labor and means.
- To Aid others by giving my sympathy to those in distress, my aid to the weak, and my substance to the needy.
- To Be careful with my criticism and liberal with my praise; to build up and not destroy.
