CANDY DAY

Lions Candy Day was this past weekend. Many of our Lions were out shaking their cans. At this time the editor does not know how we did with our solicitation. He does know that there were many Lions that could not make it out to shake their cans for one reason or another. Therefore, it would be nice if those Lions could send a donation check to our Candy Day Chairperson Lion Jill Friedrichs who worked her tail off getting prepared for Candy Day and walking a corner with a casted leg Friday morning.

Please send your donation to: Mount Prospect Lions Charities, Inc., Lion Jill Friedrichs, P. O. Box 332, Mount Prospect, IL 60056.

All the funds collected are donated to the Lions of Illinois Foundation. The Foundation supports the hearing bus, eye exams and camps for the visually or hearing impaired individuals. Last year the LIF had to reject 80 blind campers for lack of funding. Let's support this worthy cause.

SHORTS

PLEASE NOTE: Daylight saving time is ending on Sunday November 6th at 2:00 AM. We move our clocks back by one hour.

The Farmers Market will be closing Sunday, October 23rd. If you can make it for a few hour to help the Red Shirt Committee clean-up and pack it trailer for next year it would be greatly appreciated. Also, the committee will be collecting nonperishable food products that will be donated to the Village Food Pantry.

Now that the Club has transferred some of it funds to the Village Bank. The bank has decided to remodel and add a drive thru facility. I am not saying there is anything suspicious about this construction but BLB (Better Lions Bureau) will keep an eye on the funds.

During their silver anniversary, a wife reminded her husband: Do you remember when you proposed to me, I was so overwhelmed that I didn't talk for an hour?" The hubby replied: "Yes, honey, that was the happiest hour of my life."

Little Johnny's kindergarten class was on a field trip to their local police station where they saw pictures, tacked to a bulletin board, of the 10 most wanted criminals. One of the youngsters pointed to a picture and asked if it really was the photo of a wanted person. "Yes," said the policeman. "The detectives want very badly to capture him." Little Johnny asked, "Why didn't you keep him when you took his picture?"

Bernie was invited to his friend's home for dinner. Morris, the host, preceded every request to his wife by endearing terms, calling her Honey, My Love, Darling, Sweetheart, Pumpkin, etc. Bernie looked at Morris and remarked, "That is really nice, that after all these years that you have been married, you keep calling your wife those pet names." Morris hung his head and whispered, "To tell the truth, I forgot her name three years ago."
